Several Moving Pieces, All in Right Directions

Executing across the business despite supply constraints.
More diversity of customer interest in NPO vs. CPO but timelines remain intact despite rumors.

Broad based beat and raise with all opportunities either on track or better than expected. Pulled-in the $1.25B revenue guidance from OFC to the September quarter from Dec-March prior and expects the $2B revenue mark to still follow 9-12 months after. Management expects scale-up CPO at their lead customer (we think NVDA) to remain on track for shipments in the 2H of CY27 for deployments in CY28. Similar to what we have been hearing in the market, other customers (and NVDA) are looking at NPO based solutions which will be incremental to LITE's scale-up optical opportunities. We have been of the belief that volume ramp of CPO is closer to the end of the decade and view NPO as an interesting solution to bridge the gap. OCS also remains on track with their main customer (we think GOOGL) and LITE is working on a variety of high and low port count configurations (including an in-tray based OCS) which should expand the TAM and customer set. The industry is also seeing capacity issues with CW lasers where suppliers are decommitting some supply to transceiver manufacturers. We think LITE is able to offset with incremental supply from their Japan facility and reiterated targets for EML unit volume, so don't think it detracts from the business today. Lastly, pump lasers are expected to 4x over the next several quarters which may have it exit FY27 close to a $300M quarterly run rate. Net-net, we continue to view LITE favorably with their continued execution and multiple shots on goal that are all ramping into material growth drivers.

Slight Beat on Top-Line, GM Well Ahead: June revenue was above at $1B (+24.5% Q/Q, vs. St. $990M). By segment, Components came in above at $649M (+22% Q/Q, vs. St. $637M) as narrow linewidth laser assemblies grew >130% Y/Y (~$130M) and pump laser shipments grew >80% Y/Y (~$68M). EML and CW revenue came in roughly around $260M (+44% Q/Q), as 200G EML revenue grew to >25% of total EML revenue. We estimate ROAMDs of $84M (+8% Q/Q), UHP lasers as $12M (+20% Q/Q), and all Other as $95M. Systems came in higher at $357M (+30% Q/Q, vs. St. $350M), as Cloud Transceiver / Datacom Optics grew ~22% Q/Q to ~$225M and OCS shipments were ~$50M in the quarter with a much larger ramp still expected in the 2H CY26 (guide includes triple-digit OCS revenue). We estimate Access and Legacy modules were roughly flat sequentially. Lastly, Industrial Lasers were up $10M sequentially to ~$45M. GMs came in above at 50.4% (vs. St. 48.8%) due to better manufacturing utilization, favorable mix, and increased pricing on select products. Opex was above at $138M (vs. St. $130M), and net interest and other income rose to $22M (vs. $9.6M prior), netting EPS of $3.23, ahead of St. $2.97.

Changes to Estimates

Our CY26 revenue/EPS move to $4521M/$14.81 (prior $4235M/$13.28), and CY27 moves to $8177M/$28.87 (prior $7416M/$25.21).

Our price target of $1000 is based upon 35x our CY27 EPS of $28.87. Our price target remains unchanged but was previously based upon 40x our CY27 EPS of $25.21. We lower our multiple to be closer to historical valuation.

Guide to the Barclays Fundamental Equity Research Rating System:

Our coverage analysts use a relative rating system in which they rate stocks as Overweight, Equal Weight or Underweight (see definitions below) relative to other companies covered by the analyst or a team of analysts that are deemed to be in the same industry (the "industry coverage universe").

In addition to the stock rating, we provide industry views which rate the outlook for the industry coverage universe as Positive, Neutral or Negative (see definitions below). A rating system using terms such as buy, hold and sell is not the equivalent of our rating system. Investors should carefully read the entire research report including the definitions of all ratings and not infer its contents from ratings alone.

Stock Rating

Overweight - The stock is expected to outperform the unweighted expected total return of the industry coverage universe over a 12-month investment horizon.

Equal Weight - The stock is expected to perform in line with the unweighted expected total return of the industry coverage universe over a 12-month investment horizon.

Underweight - The stock is expected to underperform the unweighted expected total return of the industry coverage universe over a 12-month investment horizon.

Sustainable Investing Related Research: There is currently no globally accepted framework or definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes a 'sustainable', 'ESG', 'green', 'climate-friendly' or an equivalent company, investment, strategy or consideration or what precise attributes are required to be eligible to be categorised by such terms. This means there are different ways to evaluate a company or an investment and so different values may be placed on certain sustainability credentials as well as adverse ESG-related impacts of companies and ESG controversies. The evolving nature of sustainable investing considerations, models and methodologies means it can be challenging to definitively and universally classify a company or investment under a sustainable investing label and there may be areas where such companies and investments could improve or where adverse ESG-related impacts or ESG controversies exist. The evolving nature of sustainable finance related regulations and the development of jurisdiction-specific regulatory criteria also means that there is likely to be a degree of divergence as to the interpretation of such terms in the market. We expect industry guidance, market practice, and regulations in this field to continue to evolve.

Any information, data, image, or other content including from a third party source contained, referred to herein or used for whatsoever purpose by Barclays or a third party ("Information"), in relation to any actual or potential 'ESG', 'sustainable' or equivalent objective, issue, factor or consideration is not intended to be relied upon for ESG or sustainability classification, regulatory regime or industry initiative purposes ("ESG Regimes"), unless otherwise stated. Nothing in these materials, including any images included therein, is intended to convey, suggest or indicate that Barclays considers or represents any product, service, person or body mentioned in these materials as meeting or qualifying for any ESG or sustainability classification, label or similar standards that may exist under ESG Regimes. Barclays has not conducted any assessment of compliance with ESG Regimes. Parties are reminded to make their own assessments for these purposes.
